Treasurer's Annual Report

- We met our fundraising goal this year and have fully funded the library revamp project
- We are putting together a proposed budget for review and approval in June's meeting as we can see prices have increased and we'd like to make room for some dedicated budget lines

Open Discussion of Exec Roles

- Kara enjoyed the President role. Challenging, but learned many things.
 - Looking forward to helping next year in any capacity
 - Had fun with the team - thank you to Kayla, Brittany and Jessie. There was always lots going on
 - It felt intimidating at first, but it's been great working as a team. We're just moms doing the best we can - background knowledge is very helpful so we hope to outline some standard operating procedures to help future execs.
- Brittany looks forward to continuing on. It's been a great team effort this year.

Principal's Report

- Before and after school care space is opening in September!
 - Only about 18 families can be supported
 - Will be using Room 104 with an external access door, they are going to modify the space and improve on it
 - The EAs can staff this which is beneficial to them to increase hours and this way the kids already know the after care staff.
 - We can still use it the room during the day and take advantage of all the improvements
- Terry Fox
 - Raised $1000 !!
 - Christine gets her head shaved and all the kids get to watch
- Staffing:
 - We interviewed for our Continuing Grade 3/4 position yesterday. Over the next few days we will be announcing our newest Tyson team member.
- New Sand/Dirt Pit:
 - A new sand/dirt pit was installed last week. It has been a big hit with our students.
- School:
 - Talent Show – Auditions are on-going
 - Junior Canucks Floor Hockey Visits
 - Transitions
 - Pre-School Drop-In
- Upcoming Field Trips:

- Longhouse Extension Program (Toor, Allenby and Jensen)
