DAVID:

Beginning remarks:

Thank you to Erin with acknowledgement of this weeks events regarding TR and shares the same sentiments

Introduction of himself:

End of 2nd term – has children in the district – works within the disability sector with child development

BOARD OF EDUCATION (WHAT THEY DO)

plans for student achievement - hire a Superintendent – allocate resources – establish a plan/policies AND funding is based per student

Current items the BOE is working on

1. School needs to have FULL enrollment happen when new Rosedale school opens – TIME SENSITIVE to the school opening
2. Open Public Consultation on balancing long term enrolment opens Feb 17;closes on Mar 10
June - a decision will be made
Questions on process – not pre determined on approach
Time sensitive to families – SEPT 2027

Key Notes:

Perspective - values of district – big shifts from elementary-middle-high

5 year capital plan to government to align with numbers

Piece of land bought in Promontory

Issues with current state of schools:

Number of portables is rising

Number of current schools are on land that can't be touched/renovated

Conversation during discussion

Erin M. – families have concerns that decisions have already been made

Danielle PB. – families from other schools expressing feelings over current state of building/portables ratio
